Hockey Club Meeting

Gleichen G.W.V.A Doings

There was a good turnout Monday evening at the hockey meeting in Brown's Transfer office. A club was formed with an able executive who we hope will put Gleichen on the map for fast hockey, with G. E. McHugh as manager. It was decided to try and form a league with Bassano, Brooks and Strathmore, and also to give a big dance about Dec. 5th, providing Mrs. Trainor's orchestra can be had on that date. Frank Scott is taking over the management of the rink, which the boys are pleased with as they know Frank's genial disposition and that he will be popular with the hockey crowd. Good times and excellent ice will be assured at all times with the support of the town people.

Union Church Notes

The regular meeting of the Ladies Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. John McEwen on Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Union Church expects a real rally of her people next Sunday evening. Please do your part to make "Go to Church Sunday" a success.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 19, Rev. Thos. Wilson, of Medicine Hat, will give an illustrated lecture on "Thirty years among the Cannibals of the South Seas". This lecture is really the thrilling story of the life of the great missionary hero John G. Paton. No greater treat will come to Gleichen this winter.

Unfortunately the reels for last Wednesday night's pictures arrived here in a very bad condition, which was not the fault of the local manager, who very much regretted the trouble and annoyance caused his patrons. However, the excellent production of Saturday more than made up for the defects of Wednesday and proved the trouble was not local.

These are the times that call for courage, cheer and sane optimism. The world will yet sit down and stop rocking the boat. Suppose we talk occasionally, when we meet, of our hopes instead of our fears. We used to think we would be grateful when the war ceased to demand its daily toll of human life. Have we forgotten those dreadful days so soon?

The dance given in the Opera House last Friday night by the Gleichen Women's Institute proved a most enjoyable and successful affair and a credit to the ladies who spared no effort in trying to please their guests. Mrs. Oostad and her orchestra deserve much credit for the excellent music they provided and came in for many nice compliments throughout the evening. In fact their music was all that could be desired, which is ever the greatest feature of a successful dance. To Miss Miller credit is also due, who rendered a number of excellent selection while the orchestra had supper. Thus the merry dance continued without interruption from 9 o'clock until 2:30. The Institute ladies supplied a splendid luncheon throughout the evening on the stage and served hot coffee with it. The receipts of the evening totaled about $175, but at this time the financial report is not complete.

Armistice Dance and Fowl Supper

Armistice Anniversary, Tuesday Next, November 11th

Next Tuesday is the first anniversary of Armistice Day. Just one year ago Tuesday the greatest war in all history ceased. And all around the world people went wild with joy when they received the glad tidings. The first anniversary is to be duly celebrated in Gleichen by a dance and fowl supper in the Opera House that night. Quite fittingly the dance is under the auspices of the local Great War Veteran Association and the proceeds will go towards fitting up their new club rooms—a good cause that everyone wants to help. The soldiers asked help of the Women's Institute and the ladies not only acceded to the request, but decided the occasion demanded some extra effort on their part, and they could think of nothing that would please the boys better than a fowl supper, in which they ask the ladies of the town and district to assist by contributing fowl, cake, pies, etc., in generous quantities.

Everybody far and near is requested to join in celebrating the first anniversary of Armistice Day.

COMING EVENTS

Nov. 6—Hippodrome in Opera House.

Nov. 8—"The Heart on Romance" in Opera House.

Nov. 9—"Go to Church Sunday", in Gleichen.

Nov. 11—A. G. Saunders' auction sale.

First Thursday in each month Gleichen District Agricultural Association meets.

First Friday in each month—the Town Council meets.

Monday—Ad. changes required by noon at CALL office.

Miss Stabback is here from Delia to visit her niece, Mrs. George W. Evans, and other relatives.

Saturday night you will want to see "The Heart of Romance". It is the newest Fox film.

The Citizens Band concert and dance on Friday, Nov. 21st, will be something unique and you will be pleased with the excellent program to be provided.

Successful business men claim to start a new business or buy a business 10 per cent of the first year's business should be spent in advertising, and after that not less than two per cent should be devoted to this purpose.

The Hippodrome now playing in Calgary will be at the Gleichen Opera House for tomorrow night—Thursday. They have a rich supply of singing, dancing, comedy and clever juggling, including Leo Filler, the Romanian violinist.

Last week 200 English lassies passed through Gleichen looking for bobbies. What do you know about that Charlie, Alex., Bob and Bill? Some are said to be waiting for you at Calgary and Vancouver. Get busy fellows.

Starting the movies at 8:15 is proving very popular and the manager is to be congratulated on his efforts to meet the wishes of the majority of his patrons. Of course, there will always be a few belated ones, but these surely must be generous enough to appreciate the position of the management.

A. E. Stabback has arrived from Woodville, Ont., to visit his brother Bob and other relatives.

The fowl supper Armistice night should attract a big crowd to the G.W.V.A. dance.

Bad Breath?
Don't Be Offensive
Removes the Cause

Follow This Advice and Your Breath Will Soon Be Sweet and Pure

The bad part of Bad Breath is the fact that nearly every case shows considerable trouble from indigestion, belching gas, bloating, piles or some form of stomach misery. Often not than a pimply face, a sluggish, constipated condition is the true cause of many a man's failure in life.

By aiding digestion and building up the weak muscles of the stomach and bowels, DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS completely overcome constipation and all forms of stomach illness.

"I was terribly run down with stomach trouble that arose through neglected constipation," writes Mrs. P. D. Quigley, from Washburn, P.O. "I simply couldn't find digest my food. I had dreadful headaches, piles, and yellow muddy skin. The effect of DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS was phenomenal. I have gained in weight, have a clear skin, no more headaches, I eat well, sleep well and enjoy my meals."

Dave was not long in discovering that Edith's engagement as coachman was a device born of Mr. Duncan's kindness, to enable him to accept instruction without feeling under obligation for it. When he made this discovery, he smiled quietly to himself and pretended not to have made it. Two things were apparent after their first drive; that nothing was further from the minds of Mr. Duncan's bays than anything which called for so much exertion as a run-away, and that, even had they been so disposed, Edith was entirely competent to manage them. The girl had not lived in the foothill town since childhood without becoming something of a horse-woman. But Dave pretended not to know that he was a supernumerary. To have acted otherwise would have seemed ungrateful to Mr. Duncan. And presently the drives began to have strange attraction of themselves.

When they drove in the two-seated buggy on Sunday afternoons the party usually comprised Mrs. Duncan and Edith young Forsyth and Dave. Mr. Duncan was interested in certain Sunday afternoon meetings. It was Mrs. Duncan's custom to sit in the rear seat, for its better riding qualities, and it had a knack of falling about that Edith would ride in the front seat with the driver. She caused Forsyth to ride with her mother, ostensibly as a courtesy to that young gentleman—a courtesy which, it may be conjectured, was not fully appreciated. At first he accepted it with the good nature of one who feels his position secure, but gradually that good nature gave way to a certain testiness of spirit which he could not entirely conceal. It became evident that he would have preferred other ways of spending the Sunday afternoons. The parks for instance, or quiet walks through the cottonwoods by the river.

The crisis was precipitated one fine Sunday in September, in the first year of Dave's newspaper experience. Dave called early, and found Edith in a riding habit.

"Mother is indisposed," as they say in the society page," she explained. "In other words, she doesn't wish to be bothered. So I thought we would ride today."

"But there are only two horses," said Dave.

"Well?" queried the girl, and there was a note in her voice that sounded strange to him. Then, after a pause in which the color slowly rose to her cheeks, "There are only two of us."

"But Mr. Forsyth?"

"He is not here. He may not come. Will you saddle the horses and let us get away?"

It was evident to Dave that, for some reason, Edith wished to evade

Forsyth this afternoon. A lover's quarrel, no doubt. That she had a preference for him, and was revealing it with the utmost frankness, never occurred to his sturdy, honest mind. One of the delights of his companionship with Edith had been that it was a real companionship. None of the limitations occasioned by any sex consciousness had narrowed the sphere of the frank friendship he felt for her. She was to him almost as another man, yet in no sense masculine. It seemed rather that her femininity was of such purity that, like the atmosphere he breathed, it surrounded him, flooded him without exciting consciousness of its existence. Save for a certain tender delicacy which her womanhood inspired, he came and went with her as he might have done with a man chum of his own age. And when she preferred to ride without Forsyth it did not occur to Elden that she preferred to ride with him.

They were soon in the country, and Edith, leading, swung from the road to a bridle trail that followed the winding of the river. As her graceful figure drifted on ahead it seemed more than ever reminiscent of Recnie Hardy. What rides they had had on those foothill trails! What dippings into the great canyons! What adventures into the spruce forests! And how long ago it all seemed. That was before he started on the paper; before he had been in the grocery business, or in the coal business; back in the long, long past on the ranch in the days before his father died. Life—how it goes! And had it brought to her as many changes as to him? And had it, perhaps, brought to her one change it had not brought to him—a change in the anchor about which her heart's affection clung? This girl, riding ahead, suggestive in every curve and pose of Recnie Hardy. . . . His eyes were burning with loneliness.

He knew he was dull that day, and Edith was particularly charming and vivacious. She coaxed him into conversation a dozen times, but he answered absent-mindedly. At length she leapt from her horse and seated herself, facing the river, on a fallen log. Without looking back she indicated with her hand the space beside her, and Dave followed and sat down. For a time they watched the swift water in silence; blue-green where the current ran deeply; tinged with brown glow in the shallows from the gravel underneath.

"You aren't talking today," she said at length. "You don't quite do yourself justice. What's wrong?" "Oh, nothing," he answered with a laugh, pulling himself together. "This September weather always gets me. I guess I have a streak of Indian; it comes of being brought up on the ranges. And in September, after the first frosts have touched the foliage—" He paused, as though it was not necessary to say more.

"Yes, I know," she said quietly. Then, with a queer little note of confidence, "Don't apologize for it, Dave."

"Apologize?" and his form straightened. "Certainly not. . . . One doesn't apologize for nature, does he? . . . But it comes back in September." He smiled, and she thought the subconscious in him was calling up the smell of fire in dry grass, or perhaps even the rumble of buffalo over the hills. And he knew he smiled because he had so completely misled her.

Presently she took out a pocket volume. "Will you read?" she said. Strangely enough he opened it at the lines:

"Oh, you will never hide your soul from me; I've seen the jewels flash, and know 'tis there it as you will?"

It was dusk when they reached homeward.

Forsyth was waiting for her. Dave scented stormy weather and excused himself early.

"What does this mean?" demanded Forsyth, angrily, as soon as Dave had gone. "Do you think I'll take second place to that—that coal-heaver?"

She straightened, and her bright eyes were charged with a blaze which would have astonished Dave, who had known her only in her milder moods. But she tried to speak without passion.

"That is not to his discredit," she said.

"Straight from the corral into good society," Forsyth sneered.

Then she made no pretense of composure. "If you have nothing more to urge against Mr. Elden, perhaps you will go."

Forsyth took his hat. At the door he paused and turned, but she was already ostensibly interested in a magazine. He went out into the night.

The week was a busy one with Dave, and he had no opportunity to visit the Duncans. Friday Edith called him on the telephone. She asked him on the telephone. She asked an inconsequential question about something which had appeared in the ed on until it turned on the point of their expedition of the previous Sunday. Dave never could account quite clearly how it happened, but when he hung up the receiver he knew he had asked her to ride with him again on Sunday, and she had accepted. He had ridden with her before, of course, but he had never asked her before. He had been a sort of honored employee, whose business it was to comply with her wishes. But this time she would ride at his request. He felt that a subtle change had come over their relationship.

He was at the Duncan house earlier than usual Sunday afternoon, but not too early for Edith. She was dressed for the occasion; she seemed more fetching than he had ever seen her. There was the blush of health—or was it altogether the blush of health?—on her cheeks, and a light in her eyes such as he had seen more than once on those last rides with Recnie Hardy. . . . His eyes were burning with loneliness.

He knew he was dull that day, and Edith was particularly charming and vivacious. She coaxed him into conversation a dozen times, but he answered absent-mindedly. At length she leapt from her horse and seated herself, facing the river, on a fallen log. Without looking back she indicated with her hand the space beside her, and Dave followed and sat down. And in September, after the first frosts have touched the foliage—" He paused, as though it was not necessary to say more.

Chivalry could not allow that to pass. "Oh, not so very many," said Dave.

"How many?" she teased. "Guess."

He looked judicially on her bright face. It was a good face to look upon. Perhaps his eyes said as much.

"Nineteen," he hazarded.

"Oh, more than that."

"Twenty-one?"

"Oh, less than that." And their first confidence was established.

"Twenty," thought Dave to himself. "Recnie must be about twenty now."

"And I was five when—when Jack died," she went on. "Jack was my brother, you know. He was seven, and a great boy for his daddy. Most boys run to their mother with their hurts, but Jack was different. When paper, and from that the talk drift-father was at the office Jack would save up his little hurts until evening. . . . Well, we were playing, and I stood on the car tracks, signalling the motorman, to make him ring his bell. On came the car, with the bell clanging, and the man in blue looking very cross. Jack must have thought I was waiting too long, for he suddenly rushed on the track to pull me off." She stopped, and sat looking at the rushing water.

GEE, BUT IT'S GOOD FOR A BAD COLD

Nothing Can Touch Catarrho-zone in Curing Quickly

You may dislike taking medicine—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Catarrho-zone"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essences and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed—irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold and catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, nothing so sure, so pleasant as Catarrho-zone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrho-zone. Large size which lasts two months, price $1.00; small size 50c; sample size 25c, at all dealers.

PETER'S GREAT CONFESSION

The time has now come for the King to take account of his ministry.

This confession in some sense marks the turning point in Christ's ministry. Hereafter it is more restricted to his disciples. Two reasons are sufficient why this should be (vv. 1-12): (1) The Pharisees and Sadducees show their attitude towards him in their demand for a sign. His answer is that none shall be given save that of his death and resurrection, as symbolized in the experiences of the Prophet Jonah. (2) The disciples show their inability to understand the spiritual nature of his teaching. When he warned them of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees they understood him to refer to bread, when he meant their doctrine. It was at this crisis when Christ turned from the nation which had rejected him, that Peter made this great confession.

Two questions of Christ provoked this confession:

1. The question as to the opinion of the people concerning him.

They recognized him as a teacher or a prophet of more than human authority and power. Today, as then, there is a diversity of opinion among the people as to Jesus Christ. Some think he is only a man; others, that he is a great teacher, but nothing more. Had he been content with this he would not have been molested in Jerusalem, for the Jews willingly acknowledged him as more than a human teacher. It was his persistent claim to be the God-man, the Son of God, that sent him to the cross.

2. The second question involved the personal opinion of the disciples concerning him. To be able to tell what others think of Jesus is not enough; there must be definite, correct and personal belief in him.

II. The New Body, the Church, announced (vv. 17-20).

Peter had made a noble confession of Christ, so now Christ confesses him. If we confess Christ he will confess us (Matt. 10:32, 33). Christ declared his intention of bringing into existence a new body to the members of which he will give eternal life, and to whose hands he will entrust the keys of the Kingdom. Peter was to have a distinguished place in this body.

The keys entrusted to him were used on the day of Pentecost, and again in the case of Cornelius. Association in this new body cannot be broken by death, for the gates of hades shall not prevail against it. This body, the church, is of a heavenly origin, heavenly calling, and a heavenly inheritance.

III. The Cross the Way to the Throne (vv. 21-33).

This was, no doubt, startling to the disciples. They did not realize that redemption was to be accomplished through the passion of the cross. So unwelcome was this announcement that Peter cried, "This shall not be unto thee." Peter later saw through this darkness to the glory on the hill-top beyond. A new hope then filled his breast (1 Peter 1:3, 4). Victory through death is yet the stumbling block of many. Many are stumbling over the doctrine of salvation and redemption through the suffering of the cross. All such are under the control of the devil (v. 23). Salvation by blood, the death battles.

IV. The Cost of Discipleship (vv. 24-27).

To follow Christ means suffering. To follow him is to turn one's back upon the world. Life can only be saved by losing it. If we are going to be Christians we must share Christ's suffering. We cannot go to heaven on flowered beds of ease.

1. There must be denial of self (v. 24). There is a wide difference between self-denial and denial of self. Self-denial is practised everywhere by all people, but only the disciples of Christ or Christian people deny self. Christ takes the place of self.

2. "Take up his cross." This cross is the suffering and shame which lie in the path of loyalty to God. To do our duty will mean suffering (2 Tim. 3:12).

3. Follow Christ. This means to have the mind of Christ, to do like Christ. All such shall be rewarded when Christ comes in glory.

Calling

Mother—Did you call Edith up this morning?

Daughter—Yes, but she wasn't down.

Mother—But why didn't you call her down?

Daughter—Because she wasn't up.

Mother—Then call her up now, and call her down for not being down when you called her up.

Canadian Crops

At Kansas Show

Successes Demonstrate That Canada Is Unsurpassed as An Agricultural Country

Canadians scored many remarkable successes at the International Soil Products Exposition recently held in Kansas City. Forty first, twenty-nine second and twenty-six third prizes were won by exhibitors from the prairie provinces. Amongst the prizes won were the first, second and third prizes for hard spring wheat; the sweepstakes for wheat, and the cup offered by the Department of Natural Resources of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the best bushel of hard spring wheat; first, second and third prizes for oats; first second and third prizes for flax; first second and third prizes for peas, second and third prizes for barley, and second and third prizes for oats.

James S. Field, who won the cup sweepstakes and first prize for hard spring wheat as well as sweepstakes and first prize for oats, is farming about three miles north of Regina and, though competing at shows for a number of years, this is the first time he has had a really big success outside local shows.

The first principle is to keep the system clean. Occasionally see that the boy or girl, as well as yourself, has an internal bath. It may be with castor oil or a tiny pill of May-apple, aloin and jalap, which is sold by druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

If a cold starts with a cough and it persists, then some local treatment for this condition should be taken. A well-known alternative extract which has been on the market for a great many years, and which has been highly recommended by thousands of users, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This tonic compound is composed of an extract of roots and herbs, without alcohol, and has a soothing effect upon the mucous membrane, allays the irritation and at the same time works in the proper and reasonable way, at the seat of the trouble—the stagnated or poisoned blood.

Keep Fit For Success In Life

BY DR. A. B. BARCOCK.

You can take your boy and out of him make anything you like if you get him under good self-discipline. All roads are open to the man who is strong and fit. Uncle Sam took "our boys"—those slab-sided, stooped, hollow-chested youths—and made of them vigorous, well-developed, well-set-up and courageous men. Take the right way! Train yourself and your children to take proper exercise, drink plenty of water and keep the system clean. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a common cold or headache to the most serious illness may result from the absorption of poisons in the intestines.

U.S. May Purchase
British Airship
Appropriated By Congress
for Purchase

Two and a Half Million Dollars
An early closing of the contract for the purchase by the navy department of the British rigid airship R33, the largest airship in the world, now under construction in England, is expected, it was stated at Washington.

Two and a half million dollars were appropriated by congress for the purchase of this airship.
"The success," said the statement, of the British in building and operating rigid airships is proved by the trip of the R34 to the United States and its return to England. While the Germans had many years' start of the British, the latter have made wonderful progress in the last few years.

"The R38 to outward appearances will look like the R34, but her dimensions, horse-power, speed and radius of action will be much greater.
When full of gas, she will have a 2,724,000 cubic foot capacity, which is fifteen times that of the C5, the United States naval dirigible blown to sea and lost last spring at New foundland on the eve of an attempt to cross the Atlantic.

"The R38 is 694 feet in length, 86 feet in diameter, 93 feet six inches high, and carries a useful load of 45 tons. She is expected to have a maximum speed of sixty knots.

"The British air ministry has offered to train personnel for the R38, that upon delivery the airship can be taken over immediately by a United States crew and flown to the U.S.

Liked Their Company
That Mrs. Lloyd George possesses a kindly wit is illustrated by a true story told a few days ago. The wife of the Prime Minister had been addressing a meeting in Wales. At the station, when she was about to return home, she saw some of the women delegates seated in a third-class carriage and expressed a wish to travel with them. "But," objected one, "this is a third-class carriage."

"I prefer first-class company to a first-class carriage," replied Mrs.
Lloyd George, with a winning smile.

The Dawn of Utopia

Mothers Value This Oil.—Mothers who know how suddenly croup may seize their children and how necessary prompt action is in applying relief, always keep at hand a supply

that there is no better preparation to be had for the treatment of this ailment. And they are wise, for its various uses render it a valuable medicine.

The Unkindest Cut
"It's four years now since he left me," said the deserted wife. "I remember it just as well as yesterday—how he stood at the door, holding it open till six flies got into the house."

To Men Who Live Inactive Lives.— Exercise in the open air is the best tonic for the stomach and system generally; but there are those who are compelled to follow sedentary occupations, and the inactivity tends to restrict the healthy action of the digestive organs and sickness follows.
Parmelee's Vegetable Pills regulate the stomach and liver and restore healthy action. It is wise to have a packet of the pills always on hand.

Satan Wanted

A clergyman who was a geologist always carried his specimens about in a red handkerchief such as navvies use to carry their dinners in, relates the Edinburgh Scotsman. One day, as he was going home with it full of specimens, he saw a navvy at the top of a well, using violent language because the windlass refused to work. "My friend," said the parson, "do you know Satan?" "No," replied the man, "but I'll ask my mate."
"Bill," he cried, "do you know Satan?" "No" came the answer from the bottom of the well. "Why?"
"Well," said the man on top, "there's a bloke up here wot's got 'is dinner."

THE NERVOUS
SCHOOL CHILD

Needs Rich, Red Blood to Regain
Health and Strength

Many children start school in excellent health, but after a short time home work, examinations, hurried meals and crowded school rooms cause their blood to become weak and thin, their nerves overwrought and their color and spirits lost. It is a great mistake to let matters drift when boys and girls show symptoms of nervousness or weak blood. They are almost sure to fall victims of St.
Vitus dance, or drift into debility that leads to other troubles. Regular meals, out-door exercise and plenty of sleep are necessary to combat the nervous wear of school life. But it is still more important that parents should pay strict attention to the school child's blood supply. Keep it rich and red by giving Dr. Williams Pink Pills according to directions and the boy or girl will be sturdy and fit for school. The value of Dr. Williams Pink Pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Pearl G. Harrington, Kingsville, Ont., who says: "I have often felt that I should write you and let you know what Dr. Williams Pink Pills did for me. At the age of thirteen
I was afflicted with St. Vitus Dance. The trouble became so severe that I had to be taken from school.
I was given medical treatment but it did not help me, in fact I was steadily growing worse. Then a friend advised me to give Dr. Williams Pink Pills, which she did, with the happiest results, as the pills completely cured me and I was again able to take up my studies and attend school. About three years ago I was attacked with nervous prostration and once more took Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and after using five boxes was fully restored.
I cannot praise these pills too highly as I believe they will cure any case of St. Vitus dance, or restore anyone who is weak, nervous or run down."

You can safely give Dr. Williams Pink Pills to the most delicate child, or take them yourself with equally good results when you need a blood tonic. These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent by mail, post paid, at 5 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Queen Alexandra's Royal Relations Probably no royal women of any time has been so intimately related to such a large number of kings and queens as Queen Mother Alexandra, who soon is to celebrate her seventy-fifth birthday. Her father and mother were king and queen of Denmark.
Her husband was King Edward VII.
Her mother-in-law was the late Queen Victoria, her son is now King of Great Britain, her daughter is Queen of Norway,
a brother was the late King of Denmark, another brother and a nephew were kings of Greece, another nephew was the late Czar of Russia, and still another, who is also her son-in-law, is king of Norway.

Habits are like porous plasters,

BIFF!
Stop Joking Liver and Bowels with violent drugs, but take "Cascarets."

"Dynamiting" bile out of your system with calomel and other sickening purgatives is all wrong. Salts, Oil, and Cathartic Waters act by flooding the bowels with the digestive juices which are vital to the stomach. Cascarez are different. They act as a tonic to the bowel muscles, which is the only sensible way to relieve a bilious attack, a sour, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. There is no gripping or inconvenience. You naturally return to regularity and cheerfulness. Cascarez cost very little, and they work while you sleep.

How the Germans Behave

Are we to continue to regard the Germans as enemies now that we have brought the war to an end? One obvious retort is—depends on how the Germans behave. We know that Germany is in need of all sorts of food, raw materials, and manufactured articles; we know that if she is to pay her indemnity she must begin to produce wealth; we know that she must recompense her trade with foreign countries, and that the rate of exchange is disastrously against her.

Modern Morals

"This latter day or new morality is too lax for me." The speaker was Jerome S. Wade, the Duluth millionaire. He continued: "This new morality, which seems in its tolerance rather to encourage than oppose wickedness, reminds me of a lad in my Sunday school class.
"Now, Tommy," I said to this lad one Sunday, "now, Tommy, what must we do before our sins can be forgiven?" "We must sin," Tommy replied.

Dominions Take

New Status
Manchester Guardian Talks of Revolution in Unwritten Constitution of Empire

The Manchester Guardian in discussing the revolution which has taken place in the unwritten constitution of the British Empire, calls attention to the fact that the dominions are individual nations under the peace treaty and have separate votes in the League of Nations' council. This point, it says, is better realized in America than in Great Britain, as is shown in one of the proposed league resolutions in the American senate that on any issue in which the British Empire, or any dominion, is involved, the British Empire suffrage be restricted to one vote.

The Guardian thinks this proposal will not readily find acceptance in the dominions and says Sir Robert Borden's recent insistence on the right of the Canadian parliament to debate the ratification of the peace treaty is symptomatic of the increasing determination of the dominions to assert individuality. If the league is not to meet with embarrassments it is essential that the new status of the dominions be fully considered and regularized, the Guardian concludes.

A Useful Institution

The Gleichen Women's Institute evidently has a live membership and is accomplishing a great deal of good. Last week they gave a very successful dance to purchase dishes for public use.

By request of the G.W.V.A. next Tuesday night they will give a fowl supper at the Armistice dance and in order to make it a supper worthy of the anniversary of that great day they ask the assistance of every lady in this town and district in providing the very best edibles that can be procured and plenty of it. We all know the ladies will respond most generously for an occasion of this kind. We advise the returned boys to get into training for the feed of their lives.

On Friday, Nov. 21st, the Citizen Band has asked the Institute to give another supper at their concert and dance and the ladies have agreed to comply with the request.

All this means work and the giving of cake, pies, etc., by these ladies and such things cost real money these days. Gleichen is fortunate to have a society of this character.

Rest With Nature

The closer you follow the rules of nature the more you will accomplish, and the longer you will live, even nature takes her rest during the winter months. Why not you? Spend this winter on the Pacific Coast, where you can enjoy summer betimes, ride, motor, golf, in the big outdoors.

The Canadian Pacific Railway operate three through trains daily to Vancouver, including the fast all-sleeping car train "Trans-Canada Limited". See the magnificent mountains in their winter garb; the open seas and green fields—all this and more await you at the Pacific Coast.

Call or write for full particulars to any Agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Mrs. R. C. Clifford is prepared to give lessons in hand painting. Apply at residence Griesbach Street, east of Fourth Avenue.

On November 11—Armistice day—the Gleichen branch of the G.W.V.A. association announce they will give another one of their delightful dances in the Opera House.

The Gleichen Citizens Band has arranged to give another of their popular dances on Nov. 21. New uniforms is the idea. By all means let us help the boys come out in style.

The famous "Harmony Five" Orchestra of High River have been engaged to play at the returned soldiers ball on November 7th. So if you want a real fine time don't stay away.

Don't forget the great ball to be given in honor of the returned soldiers on Nov. 7th. It will be the event of the season at Milo. The Queenstown, Milo and Majorville ladies are depended upon to bring the eats.

CANADA NEEDS MONEY

War Expenditures Still to Be Met From Proceeds of Victory Loan.

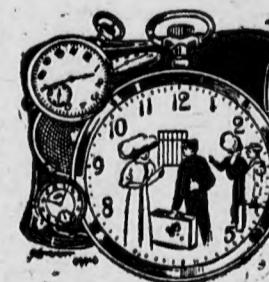

The war is over and won; but Canada's main expenditures for war will not be complete until well on into 1920. The $610,000,000 raised last year has all been spent, $400,000,000 having been largely devoted to soldiers—to maintaining them, bringing them home, providing the necessary medical services, training them. Most of the balance of the loan was sent to Great Britain to enable her to buy our surplus products. And money is still necessary—for soldiers, for providing markets, for our surplus products, for the needs of reconstruction. And that is why another Victory Loan is necessary. Canada still needs money, and needs it badly.

Victory Loan 1919 Is Bridge Between War and Peace.

Agricultural and Industrial Prosperity of Canada Depends on Success of the Loan.

Why is it necessary to have another Victory Loan? Have you heard this query? Or have you asked it?

The Victory Loan of this year stands out as the bridge between war and peace. The war is over. Our boys won that. The reconstruction period is dawning and we at home must win that.

Much of the money that Canada is asking for will be needed to clean up the war debt. The expenses of demobilization were heavy, and there is still much of it unpaid. Now that our men are back, let it not be said that we repudiated the debt for bringing them back.

The sick and wounded soldiers still in hospitals are expecting that Canada will care for them and their dependents until they have been returned to health and strength. The hospital services must be maintained at full strength as long as there are returned men needing attention.

Many men through disability are unable to return to their pre-war occupations. The Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment is doing a fine work in training returned soldiers in trades and professions that they can earn a living at, and is following up the training and seeing that they obtain remunerative employment. The maintaining of this branch of reconstructive service calls for much funds, and the Victory Loan will be used to pay for it as well as the other purposes.

Under the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, enough money is lent to returned soldiers to enable them to buy and stock a farm. This money will be repaid at a low rate of interest. The soldier is thus given a chance to re-instate himself in civil life, and production is given a boost. Of the total amount of the forthcoming loan, $24,000,000 has been apportioned to finance these soldier-farmers.

Pensions to the disabled and dependents of our glorious dead, as well as the authorized gratuities will be other items on the expense sheet. These are some of the obligations owing to the returned soldier who is now in health.

The maintaining of Canada's prosperity is an important reason why the Victory Loan should be a smashing success. The money is needed to finance the credits to overseas countries so that they may continue their trade relations with us. If Canada cannot give these credits other countries will, and then Canada will lose all that great overseas trade that has been the mainstay of our agricultural and industrial life for so long.

As an investment Victory Bonds are eminent. Paying 5 1/2 per cent, selling above par on the open market, and guaranteed by the Dominion—what further reason can you have for hesitating? The Victory Loan 1919 ought to be oversubscribed, and all right-thinking citizens will do their utmost to see that such a result is obtained.

TO CARE FOR WOUNDED

Money From Victory Loan Will Be Used to Re-establish Soldiers.

Our soldiers in France faced perils other than those of shell and gas and machine-gun fire. There was the peril of tuberculosis. Up to August last 3,909 soldiers suffering from this disease had been returned to Canada. These were placed in sanatoriums under the direction of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, and they are one of the departments of that branch that must be maintained, and come under the head of capital war outlay.

All of these men and some 20,000 others, disabled or ill, will be looked after with money raised through the Victory Loan 1919. It is the sacred duty of Canadians that the money is forthcoming.

Credits Must Be Established for Sale of Surplus Products.

Success of Victory Loan 1919 Will Insure Steady Markets for Farmers.

It takes some six bushels of wheat to feed the average person in Canada annually. Roughly, therefore, the eight million people here consume about 50,000,000 bushels each year. But even in a poor year the crop is some five times that amount, and the surplus must be sold if the farmers are to get a return for their time and labor. But the sale of the crop must be financed. Great Britain, which provides our greatest market, is not the ready cash, and so Canada must find means of raising the money. Hence the Victory Loan 1919. In view of the fact that the prosperity of the Dominion is dependent to a considerable extent upon the sale of her surplus grain the necessity of the money being forthcoming is patent.

Your dollar may be the last straw that sweeps the Victory Loan over the top. Would you take the chance of making it a failure?

Lend your money that your pay envelope may be always filled, as will follow the success of the Victory Loan.

Victory Bonds are the fodder that keeps the machinery of Canada's industrial world running at full speed.

Admit Germans to Labor Conference

Washington.—Germany and Austria are to be admitted to the international labor organization, "with the rights and obligations possessed by other members."

A recommendation to this effect from the organization committee was adopted by the labor conference, but one dissenting voice.

The debate was spirited and prolonged, but ultimately it came to an ignominious end under the closure rule. The vote for admission stood 71 to 1, the one vote being that of Louis Guérin, French employers' delegate. There was also one abstention. Jules Cartier, Belgian employers' delegate, did not vote either way.

The Belgian government delegates voted for admission, not, as they emphasized, because they wished to admit the Germans, but because of economic necessity.

The four Canadian delegates all voted for the motion to admit. On the previous motion to apply closure, however, they divided. Mr. Parsons, employers' delegate, and Mr. Draper, workers' delegate, voted against the motion.

The two Canadian government delegates, Mr. Rowell and Mr. Acland, who is substituting for Mr. Robertson, voted for it. The vote on the closure motion stood: For, 55; against, 10.

The attitude of the Canadian delegates toward the motion for admission was determined at a meeting of the delegation held prior to the debate in the conference.

The question was thoroughly discussed from all standpoints. It was then determined to support the recommendation of the organizing committee on the main ground that, from the economic point of view, it was essential that German industry should be brought within the scope of the restrictions laid down in the labor annex to the League of Nations covenant.

Future Depends on Navy

London.—Speaking at the Navy League, Walter Hume Long, First Lord of the Admiralty, said that while the country had been told to look to new forms of protection, it must not forsake the substance for the shadow. The peaceful future of the world is inseparably associated with the policy the country is going to pursue with regard to her naval forces.

Werner Horn Found Guilty

Fredericton, N.B.—Werner Horn was found guilty on the charge that he dynamited the Canadian end of the International bridge at St. Croix, N.B., on February 2, 1915. The jury was out only 13 minutes. Horn, who conducted his own defence, said he was a German officer and was acting under orders of the German government in war time.

Labor Maintenance Sum Owing

Dominions Paying Interest Which Would Be to State's Advantage in Future

London.—In the house of commons Col. Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of state for war, said the British dominions owed the war office £50,000,000 for the maintenance of troops in the field.

"We do not now anticipate receiving more than fifteen million pounds from Australia in the present year," said Mr. Churchill, "owing to financial difficulties there, but the remainder was a perfectly good debt on which the dominions were paying interest and which would roll forward for the state's advantage in future years."

Aliens Deported

Men Were Held in Internment Camp and Sailed From Canada on October 27

Winnipeg.—Ten of the aliens arrested in this city during the riots of June 19 have been deported, according to information received here. The men had been held in the Kapsasing internment camp, Ontario, and sailed from Canada on October 27.

One man who had been arrested at the same time, a Russian, who had served four years overseas with the 51st Battalion, is still in the internment camp, according to information of officials of the Labor Defence League.

Melting of Coins

Order Making Illegal Breaking Up of Silver Coin Currency

London.—Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, announced in the house of commons today that an order has been issued making illegal the melting or breaking up of silver coin currency. The export of British silver coins is prohibited and steps are being taken to prohibit the export of silver bullion except under license.

The situation, the chancellor added, is being carefully watched and he hoped further action would be unnecessary.

Britain's Final Aid to Denikine

London.—In defending the army expenditures, Secretary for War Churchill announced that the cabinet had approved a final contribution of the surplus stores to General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia. The value of the contribution, he added, was approximately £15,000,000 sterling, and it would be dispatched during the winter.

Government Grazing Regulations

No Agricultural Land Leased For Ranching on Extended Tenure

Ottawa.—The following statement was issued by the minister of the interior:

Some slight criticism has been made by one or two western papers with regard to the amendments recently made by the interior department to grazing regulations, claiming that the government was tying up in closed leases for twenty years, or less, a large portion of the remote lands still owned by the government in the Peace River district.

From the criticism which has been offered it is apparent that the writers were of the opinion that twenty years' leases are being granted on lands which are fit for agricultural purposes. This is not correct. Since February, 1914, and until recently, ten year leases only were granted by the department. The regulations provided that before a lease was granted the lands affected must be reported by an officer of the department as unfit for agricultural purposes, and the maximum area which could be under a lease was twelve thousand acres.

Recently an order-in-council was passed, and this is the one complained of, providing that leases for a term not exceeding twenty years might be granted on lands lying north of the Saskatchewan river, which were twenty-five miles from the margin of settlement provided the same were unfit for agricultural purposes. Up to the present time, however, no leases have been issued under this amendment, the policy of which was to induce ranchers who are located in a drought-stricken district in Southern Alberta and Saskatchewan to move north where droughts are not so prevalent. Owing to the fact, however, that the climate is colder in the north, it was considered necessary to extend the tenure of a lease as a lessee would be obliged to go to considerable expense in erecting stables, corrals, etc., which would not obtain in the southern country where the climate is less severe.

England Regrets

U. S. Hesitation

Three Ministers Say Peace Delayed By Gravity of Eastern Situation

London.—The hesitation of the United States to accept a mandate for Turkey was mentioned regretfully by three ministers in the House of Commons—Austen Chamberlain, Andrew Bonar Law and Winston Spencer Churchill. Mr. Bonar Law's reference was in connection with his inability to define the future government and administration of Syria and Palestine, pending the conclusion of the peace treaty with Turkey.

Mr. Churchill and Mr. Chamberlain both called attention to the delayed peace. The secretary for war dealt with the military responsibilities in eastern Europe and in Turkey, which were becoming worse owing to the delay. He said that the United States' difficulty in this respect was undoubtedly enhanced by the lamentable illness of President Wilson.

A Unique Move

Commercial Travellers to Use British Warships

London.—British commercial travellers and the representatives of business houses are to be permitted passage aboard every British warship leaving the country for abroad.

This, according to Sir Hamar Greenwood, under-secretary for home affairs, who made the announcement before the association of British chambers of commerce, is "a move unique in the history of the empire."

No Hope for Entombed Miners

Stuebenville, Ohio.—After battling their way to within 150 feet of where twenty miners have been imprisoned for two days, rescue workers were ordered out of the Y. and O. mine at Amsterdam, Ohio, by mine officials and state mine inspectors, who feared an explosion might occur, according to word received here. Hope has been abandoned that the miners are alive.

Italy Appeals to United States

London.—Diplomats here assert that another strong appeal has been addressed to the United States by Signor Tittoni, Italian foreign minister, regarding the Fiume situation. It is added that the British and French governments are using their good offices to ease the rather critical situation.

Alleged Evasion of Immigration Law

Claim that Hutterites Get Into Canada By Automobiles

Winnipeg.—Finding it a difficult job getting into Manitoba from the United States by train, Hutterites, it is alleged, are trying to outwit the immigration authorities by entering in automobiles. Reports to this effect were submitted at a meeting of the central branch of the Great War Veterans' association, with a result that a resolution was unanimously passed calling the attention of the federal government to the matter and urging it to take immediate steps to see that the regulations prohibiting the entry of Hutterites into Manitoba were not evaded in what was described as this latitude way.

The Sugar Shortage

Licenses to Export Sugar Cancelled By Canadian Trade Commission

Ottawa.—No export licenses of sugar from Canada are being issued, and old contracts which called for the shipment of sugar to the United States have been cancelled by the Canadian trade commission, it was learned. Export of sugar along the border points, which has been permitted to some extent in the past, has also been stopped, despite the many hundreds of requests for sugar being received by the trade commission.

At the office of the commission it was stated that if, as in exercised by the commissioners, there is sufficient sugar in Canada for domestic use, providing there are no strikes or transportation tie-ups.

Canada is one of the best situated countries in the world in this respect, it was stated.

To Solve Fiume Question

France and Britain Are Again Trying to Bring About Settlement of Problem

Paris.—Efforts of France and England are again being brought into play to bring about a solution of the Italian-American difficulties over the settlement of the Fiume problem, according to the Liberte.

The newspaper says that the American opposition to the modified Italian proposals is unchanged and that the response of Secretary of State Lansing is in the negative. Premier Clemenceau received Foreign Minister Tittoni.

Heavy Potato Loss in Manitoba

Winnipeg.—Manitoba has sustained a loss of about 2,300,000 bushels of potatoes, frozen in the ground, which at market prices today, $1.25 per bushel, means a loss of $3,500,000 and represents a loss of from 30 to 40 per cent. of the entire crop. Dealers say there will be a serious shortage in the province this winter.

Proportional Representation

Winnipeg.—A bill providing for proportional representation for Winnipeg will be introduced in the next session of the provincial legislature, it is stated. Winnipeg would be the only district affected, as the city constituencies are the only ones for which there are more than one member.

War on Illiteracy

An Americanization bill to wipe out illiteracy in the United States was reported on favorably by the senate labor committee. The bill would appropriate $12,500,000 a year.

Turkish Question For N. W. Conference

Entente Representatives Are Persuaded U. S. Will Not Voluntarily Accept Mandate

Paris.—The entente representatives in the peace conference apparently are persuaded that the United States will not voluntarily accept any mandate in the Near East, and it now seems assured that the Turkish question will not be touched by the present peace conference, but will probably be taken up by another conference to be held within a few months.

There is much speculation as to where the conference for the division of Turkey is to be held. It will probably not be in Paris. The suggestion of Geneva has not met with great favor, as it is not regarded as a good place for a winter conference, and it is believed that Turkey must be disposed of before spring.

To Relieve Distress

Preparations Being Made in U. S. to Cope With Strike Situation

Washington.—The government, confronted with the refusal of the miners' organization to call off the strike of a half million soft coal workers, has moved swiftly to protect the people from great distress.

First of many steps to deal with a situation admittedly critical probably will be these:

"Ample police or other protection for miners willing to remain on the job as urged by President Wilson.

"Kevival of the fuel administration, armed with full war-time powers to prevent hoarding and profiteering.

"Allocation and distribution of coal to homes, railroads and industries.

"Efforts to bring the strike to a speedy end through mediation.

"The government, however, will make no effort to bring about indictment of officers of the United Mine Workers of America, who called the strike, on charges of conspiracy to reduce production of a necessary product.

Sugar Rations to Candy-Makers

Washington.—Rationing of sugar to manufacturers of candy, soft drinks and the like is soon to be suggested by the sugar equalization board, a house war investigating committee was told by Herbert Hoover, former federal food administrator. This step by the board, Mr. Hoover said, resulted from the fact that "raw sugar" has risen beyond the point where it can be bought advantageously for the housewife."

Germany May Not Hand Over Ships

Berlin.—The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says semi-officially that the reply of the German government to the note from the supreme council at Paris, demanding the surrender of German ships sold to Holland during the war, will probably be in the negative. The note will declare that the government is unable to endorse the legal arguments of the entente that the sale of these ships, which are now in German waters, was invalid.

To Withdraw British Troops

London.—Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the House of Commons, announced that the government was arranging with France and Prince Feisal, son of the King of the Hedjaz, for the immediate withdrawal of the British troops from Syria and the assumption of the duties of occupation by the French and Arabs, pending the conclusion of the peace treaty.

Britain is Defied By Sinn Feiners

Motion Pictures Of German Crimes

Films Have Been Taken From Von Tirpitz Showing Actual Shelling of Sinking Vessels

New York.—Motion picture films taken from archives of Admiral Von Tirpitz in the former Kaiser's admiralty and showing allied vessels being torpedoed by German U-boats during the whole war, were brought here by J. H. Mackay, a Knight of Columbus secretary.

The films, which were destined for exhibition by Germany on the day of its triumph, were made by cameras on a submarine which was commissioned to cruise about the Irish Sea and photograph merchant vessels after they had been attacked by U-boats. The picture depicts the U-boats shelling four British vessels while those on the ships were swimming for lifeboats and rafts. A torpedo leaving the tube of the submarine, speeding towards its victims, is also shown.

The big event of the season will be the Armistice night.

Sunday Nov. 9th, has been chosen as "Go to Church Sunday"

Mr. Little has been seriously ill for sometime and is still far from well.

Tuesday, Nov. 11, T. H. Beach will sell at public auction A. G. Saunders' entire farm implements, stock, furniture, etc.

A. R. Tudhope will offer at auction all of J. W. D. Woodward's livestock, farm implements, furniture, etc. on W&D., Nov. 12.

The Jazz Band dance last Wednesday night did not have a very big attendance, but those who were present state the music was excellent.

There are no colored folks in this town, but there appears to be a few mean "niggers", if one may judge by the many complaints of missing chickens.

W. F. Durston evidently knows the weakness of the Call family. The other day he left a spring cooker at this place and it made the finest kind of marching.

Rev. Cannon Stoeken and Rev. R. N. Matheson are uniting in a special effort to induce everyone to attend church next Sunday, and it is hoped their efforts will be well rewarded.

Victor E. Beckwith has sold the Gleichen Meat Market to Messrs. Burness & Johnston of Calgary, who have already taken possession, and have also purchased C. J. Bray's property, adjoining T. H. Beach's harness store, where they will build a new block for their business. They will prove an advantage to our farmers as they are prepared now to purchase all the livestock, hides, poultry, etc. that will be offering, as well as conduct a first-class butcher shop. See their announcement next issue.

Victory—Bough but not paid for.

After an absence of seven years spent in England Mr. A. D. Shore returned to Gleichen last week, and has been meeting his many friends since. In appearance he has not changed in the least and many are said to remark that his looks as though it was only yesterday since they saw him. Not so with the "captain" as he is best known, but prefers not to be addressed. He sees many changes in new people and buildings. The station was the first change he noticed as he got off the train, which when he left here was located opposite the Gleichen Hotel. The fine row of grain elevators next attracted his attention and he asked if this was really Gleichen. Then as he came over town he noted many new blocks and was particularly pleased to learn work had actually started on the Agricultural School as he was one of the men who worked the hardest to secure its location at Gleichen. He intends remaining in this vicinity but has not decided on any business yet.
